Have a Heart Day is an annual child and youth-led reconciliation event to help make sure First Nations children get a good education, be healthy, and be proud of who they are.

Send a Valentine's Day card to your local MP asking them to support this day.

Create snow bears (weather permitting) with signs or messages that support equity for First Nations children.

Susan Aglukark

Ukpick's father trades with a captain from the south. She is excited to learn about and then teach other children about tools such as spoons and forks. But what if these new things change everything? She discovers that the love of her family and camp will never change.

"Justice is something that should be accessible to everyone, not just the privileged."

Cindy Blackstock

Recognition: Lorelei Williams

In 1999 she was part of the Canadian women's water polo team that won gold at the Pan American Games and bronze at the 2001 FINA World Cup Championships in Fukuoka. From February to August 2017, Waneek was director of community engagement for the National Inquiry into MMIWG.

Moose Hide Campaign

This is a grassroots movement of Indigenous and non-Indigenous men and boys who are standing up against violence towards women and children.

Wearing the moose hide signifies a commitment to honour, respect, and protect women and children in one's life and to work towards ending the violence.
